In Memory of

Randolph County Sheriff Maynard B. Reid Jr.
October 1, 1946 - January 5, 2016

Maynard B. Reid Jr. provided a legacy of service to his country and community for more than 40 years. He was a U.S. Marine who served in Vietnam receiving a Purple Heart for being wounded in combat. And he was in law enforcement, for both the Asheboro Police Department and Randolph County Sheriff's Office for nearly 40 years. Randolph County's Sheriff since 2006, Reid's unexpected passing Tuesday night has impacted a lot of people, not only locally, but across North Carolina, too. He died due to complications from pneumonia at Randolph Hospital where he had been hospitalized since December 18. Flags fly at half-staff throughout the community in honor of Reid. Member's of the sheriff's office are somber about losing their leader and uncertain about the future. Reid joined the sheriffs' office in 1990, a few months after another Randolph County Sheriff died in office, Sheriff Robert Mason, who served from 1978-89. Reid, who turned 69 in October, grew up in Randolph County and was a 1965 graduate of Asheboro High School. He joined the United States Marine Corps shortly after graduation. While in Vietnam, he was wounded in combat, for which he was a Purple Heart recipient. After his discharge in 1970, he returned to Randolph County and attended Randolph Community College, receiving his associate of Applied Science degree in business administration in 1972. He used his degree to work in Randolph Hospital's business office from 1973-78. Reid changed gears in 1978 when he began his law enforcement career with the Asheboro Police Department, working with both patrol and vice narcotics units. He was promoted to the rank of Sergeant while with the patrol division. His vice narcotics work brought him in contact with Allen McNeill, who was his counterpart in the Randolph County Sheriff's Office in the late 1980's. Reid took McNeill's former vice narcotics position when he joined the Sheriff's office in 1990. McNeil was promoted when Litchard Hurley was appointed Sheriff in 1989 following Mason's death. McNeil became Hurley's chief deputy and continued in the position when Reid became Sheriff in 2006. Reid is a Current member on North Carolina Sheriffs' Education and Training Standards Training Commission. Member of the Randolph Rotary and a Paul Harris Fellow. Life Member of the Marine Corps League. The Corporal Johnny A. Williamson Detachment #1165, Asheboro.

The family will receive friends from 4:00 pm - 9:00 pm Friday, January 8, 2016, at Pugh Funeral Home, 437 Sunset Avenue, Asheboro N.C.

Funeral services will be held Saturday January 9, at 2:pm at Sunset Church of God, 900 Sunset Avenue, Asheboro with Gary Mason and Chaplain Dwight Ayers officiating. Burial will follow at Oaklawn Cemetery in Asheboro with Military Honors by the Randolph County Honor Guard.

In Memory of

Zoe Bunn Faircloth
August 30, 1950 - December 24, 2019

Zoe Bunn Faircloth, 69, of Asheboro, died Tuesday, December 24, 2019, at The Randolph Hospice House in Asheboro.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, December 28, 2019, at Balfour Baptist Church, Asheboro, with Rev. Gary Mason officiating. Burial will follow at Randolph Memorial Park.

A native of Randolph Co., NC, Ms. Faircloth was born August 30, 1950, the daughter of the late Arthur Wilbert Faircloth and Vera Callie Harkey Faircloth. Zoe's passion was music and animals. She taught voice and piano for many years, was one of the founders for the Randolph Community Choir and organized annual Easter and Christmas plays. She was also a supporter of Veterans, especially the Marines. She served on the Randolph County Veterans Council and was an Associate Member of the Marine Corps League. Zoe was a huge supporter of the Asheboro community, sang and coordinated the National Anthem performances at the Asheboro Copperhead baseball games, and was owner of the Our Hometown local newspaper.

She is survived by her brother, Kim Faircloth; nieces and nephews, Josh Faircloth and wife Nicole, Kristen Faircloth, and KimberMarie Faircloth.

The family will receive friends at Ridge Funeral Home from 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. on Friday, December 27, 2019.

In Lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Hospice of Randolph, P.O. Box 9, Asheboro, NC 27204.

To send flowers or a memorial gift to the family of Ms. Zoe Faircloth please visit our Sympathy Store.

In Memory of

Claude Lewis Coltrane

December 05, 1928 - January 4, 2020

Claude was preceded in death by his parents, Nathan and Essie Bame Coltrane; two sisters, Alma Perry and Ruth Roberts; and two brothers, Roy Coltrane, and Kelly Coltrane. His wife of 71 years, Betty Marie Rogers Coltrane passed away July 29, 2019.

Claude and Betty were members of First Baptist Church in Siler City and enjoyed fellowship and worshipped at Moons Chapel Baptist Church in Siler City. Claude retired from Kellwood Hosiery Mill in Siler City. He was active in his second career at his home based small engine repair shop.

Claude was a member of the Liberty Masonic Lodge # 714 AFAM and served as Past Master of the lodge. He and Betty were members of Eastern Star for fifty years in Liberty and Siler City. He was a member of the William Prather York VFW Post # 8721 in Liberty. He was a life member of the Corporal Johnny A. Williamson Detachment #1165 Marine Corps League in Asheboro and the American Legion Post 81 in Liberty and served as a Boy Scout Leader for Troop No. 502 in Liberty for many years.

Claude was one of the last remaining WWII veterans in Siler City. He was a passionate farmer who enjoyed sharing the bounty of their crops with friends and neighbors.

Claude is survived by his son, David A. Coltrane Sr., and wife, Jill of Tacloban, Philippines. He has three grandchildren, Stephanie L. Montjoy, and husband, Michael of Ramseur, NC, David A. Coltrane Jr., and wife, Jamie of Pensacola, FL and James L. Coltrane, and wife, Angela of Youngsville, NC. Claude also has eight great-grandchildren, Dillon T. Bates of Louisburg, NC, Joshua M. Montjoy of Ramseur, NC, Daniele E. Coltrane, David A. Coltrane III, Johnathan L. Coltrane, Jacob M. Coltrane, all of Pensacola, FL; Alicia M. Coltrane and Ethan J. Coltrane of Youngsville, NC, as well as one bonus great-granddaughter, La'Treasha M. Tanner. He has many nieces that will miss him as well.

A funeral service will be held Saturday, January 11, 2020 at 11:00 a.m at Moons Chapel Baptist Church, in Siler City, NC. The family will receive friends from 10:00 -11:00 a.m. prior to the service. Interment will be at Melancthon Cemetery in Liberty, NC. The family wishes to send a special thank you to Community Hospice of Randolph County, NC, for the wonderful care and compassion they have shown Claude and his family during his and Betty's illnesses. Please share your thoughts and memories with the family at www.LoflinFH.com.

Loflin Funeral Home of Liberty is honored to serve Claude's family.
